The Copyright law of the United States (title 17, United States Code) governs the making of photocopies or other reproductions of copyrighted material. Under certain conditions specified in the law, libraries and archives are authorized to furnish a photocopy or other reproduction. One of these specific conditions is that the photocopy or reproduction is not to be "used for any purpose other than private study, scholarship, or research." If a user makes a request for, or later uses, a photocopy or reproduction for purposes in excess of "fair use," that user may be liable for copyright infringement. This institution reserves the right to refuse to accept a copying order if, in its judgment, fulfillment of the order would involve violation of copyright law.

Texts: Penner, Clifford and Joyce, The Gift of Sex, Waco: Word Books, 1981.

Pellaur, M., Chester, B., and Boyajian, J. (eds), Sexual Assault and Abuse,
San Francisco: Harper & Row, 1987.

Muscogian, Sexual Misconduct in Counseling and Ministry, 1995.

Course Requirements

1. Class attendance and participation in discussions and activities. Activities will include videos, invited speakers, structured small group exercises and role play/simulated therapy situations.
2. Read each text and write a brief evaluation of each one. Specify how and to what degree the text was or was not beneficial to you. Due November 19. (2-3 double-spaced typed pages).
3. Write a paper on an area of sexuality that interests you. Include in the paper evidence of additional reading with references cited. An interview with an individual who is involved in the area of the study is required. For example, if the chosen area is rape, an interview may be conducted with a counselor who works with rape victims at a Rape Crisis Center. The paper is due November 19. (15-20 double-spaced typed pages with documentation and references).
4. Maintain a journal of your reactions (thoughts, feelings, attitudes, etc.) to each class. At the end of the semester, review your journal and write a brief summary of how you experienced the course. Both the class journal and the summary are due November 19.

Course Topics

- I. Psychological considerations that affect sexuality
- II. Physiological aspects of sexuality
- III. Sexual abuse and consequences of the abuse
- IV. Sexual addiction
- V. Sex counseling and therapy
